

MOTORSPORT TECH TERMS AND CONDITIONS

BUILDING AND SHIPPING

- STANDARD ORDERS - We stock some parts but most have to be built. Sometimes orders can take as long as 4 to 10 weeks to fulfill, with some running longer than that due to the availability of raw materials, the covid situation, our current work load, and the fact that some parts are more complicated than others. Please call us at 775-351-1000 to verify stock availability and how long it will take to receive your product. We are not responsible for delays caused by shipper.
- EXPEDITED ORDERS - At additional cost, we can accommodate your need for faster processing. Please call us to set this up, or choose the RUSH BUILD TIME option during checkout on our website.
- SHIPPING CHARGES - Customer is at all times responsible for all shipping charges both ways, including warranty issues and adjustments and returns for any reason. No exceptions.
- INTERNATIONAL BUYERS - All Import Duty Fees, Custom Charges and/or brokerage fees associated with your transaction, or with any shipping carrier (like Fedex, UPS, USPS, etc) are the buyer's responsibility and are NOT included in your total. Please check with your country's Customs office to determine what these additional costs will be, as it is up to you, the buyer, to pay them.

RESPONSIBILITY

- TIME LIMIT FOR REPORTING PROBLEMS - Any and all complaints, problems, issues, missing parts or components, etc., if any, MUST be reported to MOTORSPORT TECH within 48 hours after Customer accepts delivery of merchandise. After 48 hours, all problems and issues, except for warranty issues, are the Customer's responsibility.
- LOSSES - MOTORSPORT TECH is not responsible in any way, nor does it assume ANY liability, either express or implied, for any property loss, loss of time, profit or income, or any other incidental damages caused to or by custom wheel/adaptor configurations involving low profile tires, or installations not performed by Motorsport Technology.
